Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurJourney through a historic time in American history with Barbara Brackman, bestselling author and quilt historian. Barbaras book features fifty quilt blocks that commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Civil War. Each block (most were first published in the 1930s) was selected for the symbolism its name lends to recounting stories from the eras women. This compilation of quilt block patterns includes period photos and first-person accounts. Choose from pieced or appliqued blocks, each in two colorways with instructions for 8 and 12 sizes. Dig into your reproduction fabrics and enjoy combining blocks to make your own tribute quilt.Revue de presseThis is another stunning book from quiltmaker and historian Barbara Brackman. The book is based on the blog she ran in 2011, publishing one quilt block a week and sharing one personal account linked to the American Civil War as 2011 was the 150th anniversary of the start of that conflict. The book contains 50 blocks and each one has a personal recount of an interesting historical piece or both, some relating to the blocks and all relating to the war. There are cutting and piecing instructions to make all of the blocks as either 8 in or 12 in and each block is shown in at least two colour variations. This is another lovely book of Barbara's to add to the collection. --Australian Quilters Companion; July 2013
