Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurJohn Rawlings, the exuberant young apothecary, is celebrating in The Devils Tavern, a popular if notorious haunt for sailors and smugglers. Stumbling across a corpse that has been fished out of the Thames, he identifies it as Sir William Hartfield, the bridegroom who had failed to show at his own wedding earlier that day.As the drowning reveals itself as murder, Rawlings is called upon by Londons revered sightless magistrate, John Fielding, to investigate the colourful members of Sir Williams family from terrible old Lady Hodkin to her downtrodden daughter, and from Roger, flamboyant man of fashion to the outrageous twins who share an elaborate past.Prsentation de l'diteurJohn Rawlings, the exuberant young apothecary, is celebrating in The Devils Tavern, a popular if notorious haunt for sailors and smugglers.

Stumbling across a corpse that has been fished out of the Thames, he identifies it as Sir William Hartfield, the bridegroom who had failed to show at his own wedding earlier that day. As the drowning reveals itself as murder, Rawlings is called upon by London's revered sightless magistrate, John Fielding, to investigate the colourful members of Sir Williams family from terrible old Lady Hodkin to her downtrodden daughter, and from Roger, flamboyant man of fashion to the outrageous twins who share an elaborate past. Biographie de l'auteur Deryn Lake has written five previous John Rawlings mysteries. Renowned for her knowledge of the period and powers as a storyteller, Lake is the pseudonym of a well-known historical novelist who lives in Battle, Sussex. An active member of the CWA, Lake is often invited to sit on panels and give talks at libraries etc
