Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurFifteen years ago, Gabriel Dern was involved in a car accident that left terrible scars covering half of his body. He retreats from society and rejects the idea of ever finding a woman who will accept him for who he is.After her mothers death, Morgan Wilson moves to the small town of Martinvale to begin her new life. While living in the carriage house on Gabriels property, she gradually begins to tear down the walls Gabe has built around him. As Gabe slowly warms up to her, Morgan must find a way to convince him she wants both his friendship and his love.Prsentation de l'diteurFifteen years ago, Gabriel Dern was involved in a car accident that left terrible scars covering half of his body. He retreats from society and rejects the idea of ever finding a woman who will accept him for who he is.After her mothers death, Morgan Wilson moves to the small town of Martinvale to begin her new life. While living in the carriage house on Gabriels property, she gradually begins to tear down the walls Gabe has built around him. As Gabe slowly warms up to her, Morgan must find a way to convince him she wants both his friendship and his love. Biographie de l'auteur Elizabeth Kelly was born and raised in Ontario, Canada. She moved west as a teenager and now lives in Alberta with her husband and her cat, Murray. She spends most of her time in her office writing and pushing Murray off her computer keyboard. She firmly believes that a human can survive solely on sushi and coffee, and only her husbands mad cooking skills stops her from proving that theory.
