Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur For five hundred years a vengeful dragon has been sealed in stone, until a princess makes a terrible mistake unleashing him to fulfill a destiny centuries in the making. Suzume wants only one thing - to get back to being a princess. Exiled and forced into a life of humility and poverty, she yearns for the opulence of the palace. When she accidentally breaks an ancient seal containing a dragon, she sees this as her chance to escape her bleak future. The dragon, Kaito, has other plans. Now that's he's free, he'll stop at nothing to get his revenge. Sparks literally fly between them as their personalities clash. And as old secrets are revealed, they discover that their meeting may not have been an accident at all. In a world of dangerous monster and dubious allies, Suzume must learn to defend herself if she wants to get back the life she had before her destiny or the dragon kills her. THE PRIESTESS AND THE DRAGON is the first book in the Dragon Saga by Nicolette Andrews. Fans of William Goldman's PRINCESS BRIDE and Neil Gaiman's STARDUST will love this book as it weaves together elements of both bringing together breathtaking scenery, witty banter, and an action packed plot.
